The Beatitudes

Many interpretations and teachings have been set forth through the principles conveyed in the beatitudes. Each beatitude is packed with meaning and worthy of study. The beatitudes give us a picture of a true disciple of God.

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

"Poor in spirit" means to be humble. Humility is the realization that all your gifts and blessings come from the grace of God. To have poverty of spirit means to be completely empty and open to the Word of God.

Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

"Those who mourn" speaks of those who express deep sorrow over sin and repent from their sins. Mourning in this context is called a blessing, because mourning our fallen nature creates in us a desire to improve ourselves and to do what is right!

Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

Similar to the poor, the meek are those who submit to God's authority and make him Lord. A person that is meek is one that exhibits self-control.

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

A continuous desire for justice and moral perfection will lead one to a fulfillment of that desire - a conversion to holiness. To "be filled" is the satisfaction of our soul's desire.

Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy.

Those who demonstrate mercy will receive mercy. Likewise, those who have received great mercy will show great mercy. Mercy is shown through forgiveness, kindness, and compassion toward others.

Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

To be pure of heart means to be free of all selfish intentions and self-seeking desires. Jesus says the pure of heart shall see God!

Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called sons of God.

Peacemakers not only live peaceful lives but also try to bring peace and friendship to others. Praying for peace will help change your heart. By imitating God's love, the peacemakers become children of God.

Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Just as Jesus faced persecution, so will his followers. Those who endure by faith rather than hide their faith to avoid persecution are genuine followers of Christ.

Mystères joyeux – La visitation

Voici la Vierge Marie, trésorière des dons divins, dans la maison de sa cousine Élisabeth.

Aussitôt que la voix de la Mère du Verbe Incarné y résonna, toute la famille de Jean le Baptiste se vit comblée de grâces et de bénédictions célestes, dans une première manifestation de l'inépuisable richesse de bénéfices et de miséricordes que Jésus apportait au monde.

Par ce mystère, demandons à Notre-Dame une ardente charité envers notre prochain.

Share Your Faith – Give Life

World Mission Sunday is the one Sunday of the year when the entire global Church comes together in support of missions. All the donations from these worldwide Masses go entirely to support churches, hospitals, schools and vocations in countries where the Church is new, young or poor.

World Mission Sunday, usually on the penultimate Sunday in October, is our chance to show love and solidarity to our family in faith overseas. Through our prayers, we support missionaries everywhere in spreading the Good News, and by donating we respond to Christ's call to feed the hungry and clothe the naked.

NOUVELLES DES C. DE C.

La campagne de Biberon pour le Crisis Pregnancy Centre se prolonge jusqu'à la fin octobre. C'est un excellent outil pour éduquer les enfants à faire la charité.

We are once again collecting baby bottles full of change for the Baby Bottle Drive in support of the Crisis Pregnancy Centre, an organization that offers shelter and support services to pregnant women. This is an excellent way to teach children how and why to save for a charitable cause. The campaign ends on October 31st.

2019 Good Shepherd Campaign - To Dare for God

In this second week of the Good Shepherd Campaign, you are invited to watch a video on services provided by the Office of Marriage, Family and Life posted on our Archdiocese's website and Facebook Page. Volunteers play an important role in this service, for example in marriage preparation. Please include those persons who dare to volunteer in your prayers this week.

Pendant cette deuxième semaine de la Campagne du Bon Pasteur, on vous invite à visionner une vidéo sur le Service Mariage, famille et Vie publiée dans le site Web et à la page Facebook de l'Archidiocèse. Les bénévoles jouent un rôle important dans ce service, par exemple dans la préparation au mariage. Cette semaine, veuillez inclure les personnes qui osent être bénévoles pour Dieu dans vos prières.

Voter: un droit et une responsabilité

Exercer son droit de vote signifie porter un jugement éclairé et perspicace sur les choix qui nous sont proposés. L'Église nous rappelle que la conscience chrétienne bien formée ne permet à personne d'encourager par son vote la mise en œuvre d'un programme politique ou d'une loi dans lesquels le contenu fondamental de la foi et de la morale serait évincé par la présentation de propositions différentes de ce contenu ou opposées à lui. Nous sommes toutes et tous appelés à participer activement au façonnement moral de la société où nous vivons et à défendre les droits de ceux et celles qui sont les plus vulnérables.

Voting: A Right and Responsibility

Exercising the right to vote means making informed and discerning judgments about the options available. The Church reminds us that "it must be noted that a well-formed Christian conscience does not permit one to vote for a political program or an individual law in which the fundamental content of faith and morals is replaced by the introduction of proposals differing from this content or opposing it." Christians are called to take an active part in morally shaping the societies we inhabit and to defend the rights of those who are most vulnerable.
